Transfer Movie Film to DVD or Blu-Ray

Normal Service Time: 3 Weeks - January through October
4 Weeks - November & December

Each frame of your movie is digitally scanned to capture the best clarity and detail. We transfer movies to either standard DVD-Video or high definition Blu-Ray discs.

DVDs: You receive a DVD-Video disc that is playable in a DVD player connected to your TV, or for viewing on many computers. One title and one subtitle are included in the standard transfer service. The titles appear at the top of the on-screen menu page when viewing the DVD, as well as on the cover of the DVD case. The titles are also printed on the DVD surface. DVD chapters are created at random scene breaks, with thumbnail images in the navigation menu and corresponding thumbnails printed on the Deluxe DVD case.

Blu-Ray: Your movies are recorded in high definition for the best viewing quality. To take advantage of the Blu-Ray option, you'll need an HDTV or HD monitor as well as a Blu-Ray player. These systems will also play standard DVDs, but a regular DVD player will not play a Blu-Ray disc. Blu-Ray discs include a case with your title and subtitle, and space on the disc to write notes on the content of the movies. Each movie reel you submit will be marked as one chapter in the Blu-Ray navigation menu.

The total footage of your order can be calculated based on the size of the movie reels as shown in the following table. Many 5" and 7" reels include a scale on one side of the reel to indicate how many feet of film are on partially filled reels.

2 ¾" diameter reel	=	50 feet
5" diameter reel	=	200 feet
7" diameter reel	=	400 feet

Running time for movie footage depends on the type of movie film (see table below). Up to 2 hours of finished video can be recorded onto each DVD or Blu-Ray disc.

2 hours of Regular 8mm	=	1850 ft	(37 - 50 foot reels)
2 hours of Super 8	=	2000 ft	(40 - 50 foot reels)
2 hours of 16mm	=	4000 ft

As we transfer your movies, long blank spots are edited out. If we make any errors on your order we will gladly remake the order at no charge. However, please know that refunds are not allowed on this service.

Deluxe DVD Case and DVD with title and thumbnail images.
Professionally transferred from your movie film.
